PREAMBLE

"Now the Berean Jews were of more noble character than those in Thessalonica, for they received the message with great eagerness and examined the Scriptures every day to see if what Paul said was true."

— Acts 17:11 (NIV)

We, the members of The Berean Church, a church expression of Jesus City International Ministries, being called by God and united by the precious blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, do hereby establish this Constitution to govern our fellowship, preserve sound doctrine, and advance the Kingdom of God in the earth.

Recognizing that the Church of Jesus Christ is a divine institution established by our Lord for the propagation of the Gospel, the edification of believers, and the demonstration of His glory in the earth, we covenant together to walk in the light of God's Word, pursue holiness, and fulfill the Great Commission entrusted to us.

Like the noble Bereans of old who received the Word with readiness of mind and searched the Scriptures daily, we commit ourselves to the diligent study, faithful proclamation, and practical application of God's eternal truth. We embrace the apostolic mandate to establish believers in the faith through systematic discipleship and biblical formation—the Episterizo approach—raising tomorrow's leaders today.

This Constitution serves as a covenant document governing our corporate life, ministry operations, and ecclesiastical relationships, subject always to the supreme authority of Holy Scripture and the Lordship of Jesus Christ.

PART ONE: VISION, MISSION, AND PURPOSE

Chapter 1: Our Vision

1.1 Vision Statement

To be a Christ-centered, Word-founded, Spirit-empowered community of believers who know God intimately, grow in His grace continually, and go forth to disciple nations strategically—raising tomorrow's leaders today through the transformative power of the Gospel.

1.2 Vision Amplification

The Berean Church envisions a global fellowship of believers who, like their ancient namesakes, demonstrate noble character through their eager reception of divine truth and diligent examination of Scripture. We see a church that:

- Produces mature disciples who are established in sound doctrine and equipped for every good work
- Raises spiritual leaders who will shape families, communities, and nations for God's glory
- Demonstrates the love and power of Christ through signs, wonders, and transformed lives
- Extends the Kingdom of God through strategic church planting and missions
- Impacts society through kingdom-minded professionals, entrepreneurs, and change-makers

Chapter 2: Our Mission

2.1 Mission Statement

To know Christ and make Him known by establishing believers in biblical truth, equipping them for ministry, and sending them forth as agents of transformation in every sphere of society.

2.2 Mission Objectives

In fulfillment of our mission, The Berean Church commits to:

1. WORSHIP: Cultivate authentic, Spirit-led worship that glorifies God and transforms hearts
2. WORD: Provide systematic biblical teaching through Foundation School, discipleship cohorts, and ongoing education
3. WITNESS: Evangelize the lost through personal testimony, outreach programs, and missions

4. WORKS: Demonstrate Christ's love through compassionate service and community development
5. WARFARE: Engage in strategic spiritual warfare through prayer, intercession, and prophetic ministry

Chapter 3: Our Purpose

3.1 Primary Purpose

The Berean Church exists to glorify God by fulfilling the Great Commission (Matthew 28:18-20) and the Great Commandment (Matthew 22:37-40) through the establishment of a vibrant, reproducing community of disciples who love God supremely, love one another sacrificially, and serve the world strategically.

3.2 Corporate Purposes

1. To provide regular assemblies for worship, fellowship, instruction, and prayer (Acts 2:42)
2. To administer the ordinances of Baptism and the Lord's Supper as commanded by Christ
3. To exercise spiritual oversight and pastoral care for all members
4. To develop and deploy ministers, missionaries, and marketplace leaders
5. To establish daughter churches and ministry expressions locally and globally
6. To engage in social action, community development, and humanitarian service
7. To maintain fellowship and partnership with Jesus City International Ministries and the broader Body of Christ

Chapter 4: Our Core Values

The Berean Church is built upon these foundational values that shape our identity, guide our decisions, and define our culture:

4.1 Scriptural Authority

We believe the Bible is the inspired, infallible, and authoritative Word of God—our supreme rule for faith and practice. Like the Bereans, we examine all teaching against the standard of Scripture and submit every area of life to its governance.

4.2 Authentic Worship

We value worship that flows from transformed hearts—worship that is Spirit-filled, truth-grounded, and Christ-exalting. Our corporate gatherings and personal devotions prioritize encountering God's presence and responding with reverence, joy, and surrender.

4.3 Intentional Discipleship

We are committed to the Episterizo approach—systematically establishing believers in biblical truth through progressive revelation and practical application. Through Foundation School, discipleship cohorts, cell groups, and mentoring relationships, we invest intentionally in spiritual formation.

4.4 Spirit Empowerment

We embrace the person and work of the Holy Spirit, welcoming His gifts, fruit, and power in our midst. We pursue the baptism of the Holy Spirit and the manifestation of spiritual gifts for the edification of the church and the advancement of the Gospel.

4.5 Relational Community

We value authentic, covenant relationships expressed through cell groups, ministry teams, and inter-generational connections. We practice the 'one another' commands of Scripture, bearing burdens, encouraging hearts, and spurring one another toward love and good works.

4.6 Servant Leadership

We embrace Christ's model of servant leadership—leading by example, empowering others, and prioritizing the welfare of those we serve. Our leaders are called to shepherd with humility, integrity, and sacrificial love.

4.7 Kingdom Generosity

We practice biblical stewardship and generous giving as expressions of worship and trust in God's provision. We honor the Lord with our tithes and offerings, believing that faithful stewardship releases kingdom resources for ministry expansion.

4.8 Missional Engagement

We are a sent people—commissioned to evangelize the lost, plant churches, and transform communities. We value both local impact and global reach, sending missionaries and establishing ministry expressions across nations.

4.9 Excellence with Humility

We pursue excellence in all we do as unto the Lord, while maintaining hearts of humility that recognize all gifts come from above. We reject mediocrity while guarding against pride.

4.10 Intergenerational Legacy

We are committed to raising tomorrow's leaders today—investing in children, youth, and emerging generations. We value both the wisdom of the elders and the energy of the young, building bridges across generations for kingdom continuity.

PART TWO: STATEMENT OF FAITH

Chapter 5: Doctrinal Statement

The Berean Church affirms the historic Christian faith as expressed in the following doctrinal positions:

5.1 The Holy Scriptures

We believe the Holy Bible, consisting of sixty-six books of the Old and New Testaments, is the inspired, infallible, and authoritative Word of God. It is God-breathed in its entirety (2 Timothy 3:16), written by human authors under the supernatural guidance of the Holy Spirit, without error in its original manuscripts. The Scriptures are the supreme and final authority in all matters of faith and conduct (2 Peter 1:20-21).

5.2 The Trinity

We believe in one God, eternally existing in three co-equal, co-eternal Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Each Person of the Godhead possesses all the attributes of deity and is worthy of precisely the same worship, confidence, and obedience (Matthew 28:19; 2 Corinthians 13:14).

5.3 God the Father

We believe in God the Father, Creator of heaven and earth, who is infinite in wisdom, power, holiness, justice, goodness, and truth. He is the source of all things, the sustainer of all life, and the sovereign ruler over all creation. He is a Father indeed to those who become His children through faith in Jesus Christ (Genesis 1:1; Ephesians 1:3-6).

5.4 Jesus Christ

We believe in Jesus Christ, the eternal Son of God, who became man without ceasing to be God. We believe in His virgin birth (Isaiah 7:14; Matthew 1:23), sinless life (Hebrews 4:15), miraculous ministry, substitutionary and atoning death (1 Corinthians 15:3), bodily resurrection (Matthew 28:6), ascension to the right hand of the Father (Acts 1:9-11), and imminent, visible, personal return in power and glory (Acts 1:11; Revelation 19:11-16). He is the only mediator between God and humanity (1 Timothy 2:5).

5.5 The Holy Spirit

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the third Person of the Trinity, who convicts the world of sin, righteousness, and judgment (John 16:8-11). He regenerates, indwells, seals, and gifts every believer at the moment of salvation (Ephesians 1:13-14). We believe in the baptism of the Holy Spirit as a distinct experience subsequent to salvation, empowering believers for witness and service (Acts 1:8; 2:4), accompanied by speaking in other tongues as the Spirit gives utterance. We affirm the present-day operation of all spiritual gifts (1 Corinthians 12-14) and the fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22-23).

5.6 Humanity

We believe that humanity was created in the image of God (Genesis 1:26-27), male and female, for fellowship with God and stewardship of creation. Through Adam's transgression, sin entered the human race, resulting in spiritual death, separation from God, and the condemnation of all humanity (Romans 3:23; 5:12). Every person is born with a sinful nature and is incapable of salvation apart from God's grace.

5.7 Salvation

We believe that salvation is by grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone (Ephesians 2:8-9). It is received through personal repentance toward God and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, whose precious blood was shed on Calvary for the forgiveness of sins (Acts 20:21; Romans 10:9-10). Salvation includes justification, sanctification, and glorification. We believe in the eternal security of the believer (John 10:27-30; Romans 8:38-39).

5.8 The Church

We believe the Church is the Body of Christ, of which He is the Head, composed of all born-again believers regardless of denomination or location (Ephesians 1:22-23; 4:11-16). The local church is a visible expression of the universal Church, organized for worship, fellowship, instruction, evangelism, and service. Christ has established the Church to fulfill His purposes in the earth until His return.

5.9 Church Ordinances

We believe in two ordinances instituted by Christ: (a) Water Baptism by immersion for believers as a testimony of their identification with Christ in His death, burial, and resurrection (Matthew 28:19; Romans 6:3-4); and (b) The Lord's Supper as a memorial of Christ's suffering and death, and a proclamation of His coming again (1 Corinthians 11:23-26).

5.10 Divine Healing

We believe that divine healing is provided in the atonement of Christ and is available to all believers (Isaiah 53:4-5; Matthew 8:16-17; James 5:14-16). While we acknowledge God's sovereign will in all things, we encourage believers to pray for healing with faith and to seek the laying on of hands by church elders.

5.11 Eschatology

We believe in the blessed hope—the imminent, personal, visible return of our Lord Jesus Christ (Titus 2:13; 1 Thessalonians 4:16-17). We believe in the bodily resurrection of both the saved and the lost: the saved unto eternal life with God, and the lost unto eternal separation from God (John 5:28-29; Revelation 20:11-15). We believe in the literal existence of heaven and hell.

5.12 Marriage and Family

We believe that marriage is a sacred covenant between one man and one woman, instituted by God and reflecting the relationship between Christ and the Church (Genesis 2:24; Ephesians 5:22-33). Sexual intimacy is designed by God to be expressed solely within the marriage covenant. We believe that children are a blessing from the Lord and that parents bear primary responsibility for their spiritual nurture and training (Psalm 127:3; Deuteronomy 6:6-7).

PART THREE: GOVERNANCE AND STRUCTURE

Chapter 6: Name, Affiliation, and Legal Status

6.1 Name

The name of this organization shall be THE BEREAN CHURCH, hereinafter referred to as 'the Church' or 'TBC.'

6.2 Affiliation

The Berean Church is a church expression of Jesus City International Ministries (JCIM), founded in 2020 in Accra, Ghana, operating under the motto 'Raising Tomorrow's Leaders Today.' The Church maintains a covenant relationship with JCIM while preserving autonomy in local matters of governance and ministry.

6.3 Location and Registered Office

The principal place of worship and registered office of the Church shall be located in Accra, Greater Accra Region, Ghana. Additional campuses, satellite locations, and ministry centers may be established as the Church expands its reach.

6.4 Legal Status

The Berean Church shall operate as a registered religious organization under the laws of the Republic of Ghana. The Church is organized exclusively for religious, charitable, and educational purposes, as defined by applicable law.

6.5 Official Colors and Symbols

The official colors of The Berean Church are:

- White/Ivory — representing purity, holiness, and the righteousness of Christ
- Muted Gold — symbolizing divine glory, excellence, and tested faith
- Royal Blue — signifying heavenly mandate, covenant faithfulness, and revelation
- Burgundy — representing the precious blood of Christ, sacrifice, and redemption

The official logo features the name 'THE BEREAN CHURCH' with a distinctive triangular emblem incorporating an open Bible and illuminated cross, symbolizing our commitment to Scripture and the centrality of Christ.

Chapter 7: Leadership Structure

7.1 Government by Christ

The Berean Church acknowledges Jesus Christ as the Head of the Church (Ephesians 1:22-23; Colossians 1:18). All human leadership operates under His authority and for His glory. The Church embraces a theocratic model of governance expressed through apostolic oversight, pastoral leadership, and plurality of elders.

7.2 The Apostolic Council

The Berean Church operates under the apostolic covering of Jesus City International Ministries. The Apostolic Council provides spiritual oversight, doctrinal guidance, and strategic direction for the Church's mission and expansion. The Council includes the Presiding Apostle of JCIM and appointed apostolic representatives.

7.3 The Senior Pastor

The Senior Pastor serves as the chief shepherd and spiritual leader of the local church, responsible for:

1. Providing vision, direction, and spiritual oversight for the congregation
2. Preaching and teaching the Word of God
3. Leading the pastoral team and ministry staff
4. Administering the ordinances of the Church
5. Representing the Church in external relationships
6. Overseeing the implementation of this Constitution

7.4 The Board of Elders

The Board of Elders assists the Senior Pastor in the spiritual oversight and governance of the Church. Elders must meet the qualifications outlined in 1 Timothy 3:1-7 and Titus 1:5-9. The Board shall consist of no fewer than three (3) and no more than twelve (12) members, including the Senior Pastor who serves as Chairman.

Responsibilities of the Board of Elders include:

- Providing spiritual counsel and pastoral care
- Safeguarding sound doctrine and church discipline
- Approving major policy decisions and financial matters
- Appointing and ordaining ministers and deacons
- Reviewing and amending this Constitution

7.5 The Diaconate

Deacons are servant-leaders appointed to assist the pastoral team in practical ministries of the Church. Deacons must meet the qualifications outlined in 1 Timothy 3:8-13 and Acts 6:1-6. They serve in areas such as administration, hospitality, benevolence, facility management, and ministry coordination.

7.6 Ministry Directors and Department Heads

Ministry Directors oversee specific areas of church ministry and report to the Senior Pastor or designated pastoral staff. They are responsible for developing ministry strategies, training volunteers, and ensuring alignment with the Church's vision and values.

7.7 The Administrative Council

The Administrative Council handles the operational and administrative functions of the Church, including finance, human resources, legal compliance, facilities, and communications. The Council is led by the Church Administrator and operates under the authority of the Board of Elders.

Chapter 8: Membership

8.1 Membership Qualifications

Membership in The Berean Church is open to all persons who:

1. Have received Jesus Christ as personal Lord and Savior
2. Have been baptized by immersion following salvation
3. Have completed the Church's membership class (Foundation School)
4. Affirm agreement with this Constitution and Statement of Faith
5. Commit to faithful attendance, service, and financial support
6. Submit to the spiritual authority and discipline of the Church

8.2 Categories of Membership

The Church recognizes the following membership categories:

- Active Members: Those who have met all membership requirements and maintain active participation
- Associate Members: Those who maintain primary membership elsewhere but regularly fellowship with TBC
- Youth Members: Baptized persons aged 13-17 who have completed youth membership requirements
- Honorary Members: Individuals recognized for exceptional service to the Kingdom

8.3 Rights and Responsibilities of Members

Active members in good standing shall have the right to:

- Participate in all services, programs, and activities of the Church
- Receive pastoral care, counseling, and spiritual guidance
- Serve in ministry positions according to giftings and calling
- Vote on matters submitted to the membership for decision
- Access church facilities for approved purposes

Members are expected to:

- Attend services regularly and participate in a cell group
- Continue in the discipleship pathway through Foundation School and cohorts
- Give tithes and offerings faithfully
- Serve in at least one ministry area
- Live a lifestyle consistent with biblical standards
- Pursue personal spiritual growth and maturity
- Maintain unity and promote peace within the fellowship

8.4 Membership Termination

Membership may be terminated by: (a) voluntary resignation through written notice; (b) transfer to another church; (c) prolonged absence without communication (12+ months); (d) death; or (e) removal through church discipline for unrepentant sin or doctrinal deviation. The Board of Elders shall oversee all matters of membership discipline according to biblical principles (Matthew 18:15-17; 1 Corinthians 5).

Chapter 9: Ministries and Departments

9.1 Core Ministries

The Berean Church shall maintain the following core ministries:

WORSHIP AND CREATIVE ARTS MINISTRY — Responsible for leading corporate worship, including music ministry, choir, dance, drama, media, and technical production.

PRAYER AND INTERCESSION MINISTRY — Coordinates prayer meetings, prayer watches, intercession teams, and spiritual warfare strategies.

DISCIPLESHIP AND FORMATION MINISTRY — Oversees Foundation School, discipleship cohorts, cell groups, and spiritual formation programs.

EVANGELISM AND MISSIONS MINISTRY — Coordinates outreach programs, evangelistic campaigns, missions trips, and church planting initiatives.

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY — Provides age-appropriate spiritual formation for children from infancy through age 12.

YOUTH MINISTRY — Disciples teenagers and young adults (ages 13-25) through relevant teaching, mentorship, and leadership development.

MEN'S MINISTRY — Equips men to fulfill their roles as spiritual leaders in their homes, churches, and communities.

WOMEN'S MINISTRY — Empowers women in their spiritual growth, family responsibilities, and kingdom service.

MARRIAGE AND FAMILY MINISTRY — Strengthens marriages and families through counseling, enrichment programs, and resources.

WELFARE AND BENEVOLENCE MINISTRY — Provides compassionate care to members and community members in need.

HOSPITALITY AND USHERING MINISTRY — Creates welcoming environments and ensures orderly services.

MEDIA AND COMMUNICATIONS MINISTRY — Manages church communications, social media, broadcasting, and digital presence.

9.2 Foundation School

Foundation School is the primary discipleship pathway of The Berean Church, designed to systematically establish believers in biblical truth. The curriculum includes:

- Level One: Salvation, water baptism, Holy Spirit baptism, and church membership
- Level Two: Bible survey, doctrine, spiritual disciplines, and stewardship
- Level Three: Ministry gifts, leadership development, and evangelism
- Level Four: Apologetics, advanced theology, and specialized ministry training

9.3 Cell Ministry

Cell groups are the basic unit of fellowship and discipleship in The Berean Church. Every member is expected to belong to a cell group for accountability, spiritual growth, and pastoral care. Cells meet weekly for Bible study, prayer, fellowship, and outreach.

Chapter 10: Financial Stewardship

10.1 Biblical Foundation

The Berean Church affirms that all resources belong to God and that believers are called to be faithful stewards of what He has entrusted to them. We embrace the biblical principles of tithing and generous giving as expressions of worship, trust, and partnership in God's work (Malachi 3:10; 2 Corinthians 9:6-7).

10.2 Sources of Revenue

The Church shall be financed through:

1. Tithes: Ten percent of members' increase, given as an act of worship and obedience
2. Offerings: Freewill contributions above the tithe for general ministry support
3. Special Offerings: Designated gifts for missions, building projects, and special initiatives
4. First Fruits: Annual offerings given as thanksgiving for God's provision
5. Donations and Grants: Gifts from individuals, organizations, or foundations
6. Ministry Income: Revenue from publications, events, and approved activities

10.3 Financial Administration

All financial operations shall be conducted with transparency, accountability, and integrity. The Church shall maintain proper accounting records, undergo annual audits, and provide financial reports to the membership. The Board of Elders shall approve the annual budget and oversee major financial decisions.

10.4 Financial Policies

- All funds shall be deposited in authorized church accounts within 48 hours of receipt
- Expenditures shall require dual authorization above established thresholds
- The Church shall maintain adequate insurance coverage for properties and operations
- Designated funds shall be used only for their intended purposes
- The Church shall allocate at least 10% of general income to missions and benevolence

Chapter 11: Church Discipline

11.1 Purpose of Discipline

Church discipline is an expression of love and an essential function of the church family. Its purposes are: (a) to restore the erring member to fellowship with God and the church; (b) to maintain the purity and witness of the church; (c) to deter others from sin; and (d) to glorify God through upholding His standards of holiness.

11.2 Process of Discipline

The Church shall follow the process outlined in Matthew 18:15-17:

1. PRIVATE ADMONITION: The offended party addresses the matter privately with the offender
2. WITNESSED CONFRONTATION: If unresolved, one or two witnesses join the conversation
3. CHURCH INVOLVEMENT: If still unresolved, the matter is brought before the Board of Elders
4. REMOVAL FROM FELLOWSHIP: If there is no repentance, the person is removed from membership

11.3 Restoration

The goal of all discipline is restoration. When a disciplined member demonstrates genuine repentance, the Church shall receive them back with grace, forgiveness, and appropriate care. The Board of Elders shall determine the pathway and timeline for restoration.

Chapter 12: Meetings and Services

12.1 Regular Services

The Church shall conduct regular services as follows:

- Sunday Worship Services: The principal gathering for worship, teaching, and fellowship
- Midweek Services: For teaching, prayer, and spiritual growth
- Cell Group Meetings: Weekly gatherings in homes or designated locations
- Prayer Meetings: Regular corporate prayer gatherings

12.2 Special Services and Programs

The Church shall conduct special services including:

- Communion Services: Regular observance of the Lord's Supper
- Water Baptism Services: For new believers
- Baby/Child Dedication: For parents presenting their children to God
- Thanksgiving and Harvest Services: Annual celebrations of God's faithfulness
- Revival and Conference Meetings: Special seasons of spiritual refreshing
- Ordination and Commissioning Services: For setting apart ministers and missionaries

12.3 Business Meetings

The Church shall hold an Annual General Meeting for the presentation of reports, approval of budgets, and other matters requiring membership input. Special business meetings may be called by the Board of Elders with appropriate notice. Quorum for business meetings shall be 25% of active members.

Chapter 13: Amendments to This Constitution

13.1 Amendment Process

This Constitution may be amended by the following process:

1. Proposed amendments must be submitted in writing to the Board of Elders
2. The Board shall review and approve proposed amendments for membership consideration
3. Approved proposals shall be distributed to members at least 30 days before voting
4. Amendments require a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of active members present
5. Amendments affecting doctrine or core values require additional Apostolic Council approval

13.2 Protected Provisions

The following provisions are foundational and may not be amended: the Statement of Faith (Part Two), the authority of Scripture, the deity of Christ, salvation by grace through faith, and the Church's relationship with Jesus City International Ministries.

Chapter 14: Dissolution

14.1 Dissolution Process

In the event that the Church must be dissolved, the following process shall be followed:

1. The Board of Elders shall recommend dissolution to the Apostolic Council
2. Upon Apostolic Council approval, the recommendation shall be presented to the membership
3. Dissolution requires a three-fourths (3/4) majority vote of active members
4. All debts and liabilities shall be satisfied before distribution of assets

14.2 Distribution of Assets

Upon dissolution, all remaining assets shall be transferred to Jesus City International Ministries or, if that organization no longer exists, to another Christian organization with similar purposes as determined by the Board of Elders and approved by the Apostolic Council. No assets shall be distributed to individual members.

DECLARATION AND ADOPTION

We, the undersigned, as representatives of The Berean Church, a church expression of Jesus City International Ministries, do hereby adopt this Constitution as the governing document of our fellowship. We commit ourselves to uphold its provisions, honor its principles, and submit to its authority under the Lordship of Jesus Christ.

This Constitution shall take effect upon adoption and shall remain in force until amended or superseded according to the provisions herein.
